

TWW Inc.

2016 SPECIAL EDITION

Newsletter

Greetings!

Celebrating our 14th year of arts, education, community and culture.

TWW Inc. has served over 4,500 students and worked/trained 100 artists.

NEW WEBSITE IS HERE!

www.twwinc.org

We've given ourselves a makeover. Scratch that – a complete long overdue overhaul! And we did it all for you. Our new site is simple to navigate, makes it easier to find information, and an easy way to connect with us to be part of our social network.

The site gives you our mission, programs, history, vivid pictures of past work, writings from our students, financial/legal information, TESTIMONIALS from students and parents, events, and much more! Making sure we are completely transparent, our ethical and values as an organization are clear, continuing to be dedicated to the mission of the organization.

Feedback is important. Visit our site, go to "contacts-keep in touch" and tell us your thoughts on this new site.

What makes TWW Inc. unique? How a small organization like ours been around for 14 years?

Most importantly, this organization was built on values that is for the people, community, environment, and society. Those values are Effective Cultural programs, We Listen, Understanding Diversity/Cultures, Cultural Models, Budding Talents, Communication with Peers, Action, Battle through Struggles, Value the Voices, and Empowerment & Recovery.

How is each one defined? Visit our site to read more.

TWW Inc is about having programs for social, cultural, physical and economic development for low-income and marginalized people (restoring/building confidence).

TWW Inc. and the staff wish to say "thank you" to Gloria Web design for working hard on making sure that the new site truly reflects the mission, dedication, and the passion of our work!

TWW Inc. 14 years of service to the community has allowed us to use so many different forms of the arts to help students with their developmental and educational needs.

- Visual (African & Native Dolls, quilting, clay work - sculpture, drawing, painting, collages, photography, necklaces, wood chip, Native/African homes, and cave writing).
- Dance (All different forms of African, Caribbean, folklore, swing, modern, jazz, ballet, spiritual and hip-hop).
- Theater (Youth have engaged in dramatic role-playing, script writing, slave narratives, historical re-enactments).
- Music (drumming, singing, making and playing shekere).
- Professional Development for teachers, to guide, assist, and learn how to reach students to become higher achievers. Also giving teachers new and approved methods of teaching.

- Creative Arts Therapy

Why have we been successful? Partnerships with organizations such as Something Positive, Inc. to help students flourish. Having experience teaching art staff, and those who do not have experience, the willingness to learn and become teachers. Advisers & volunteers that help guide the mission/programs, and the donations we receive. The principals that gives us the opportunity to help their staff & students to be higher achievers.

Most important: THE STUDENTS. Their passion to become higher achievers, helping students and adults with their emotional challenges.

The goal of helping is not easy, each individual we serve is unique in the way they think, comprehend, and enforce what they learn. TWW Inc. continued mission is about finding ways to help all people we serve by using their unique talents to guide us, guide them.

With your help, we will continue!

TWW INC Thanks you!

TWW Inc. is excited about moving forward and facing new challenges that will only strengthen this organization, the communities, and youth we serve. Your support, no matter how much, is essential to our goals in helping people with their emotional & educational goals. We are humbled by your support, and say "thank you"!
